

Composting in Ohio: A tour of the industry

August 24, 2017

Check out a few photos from the tour and the panel presentation slides (click on the title).

Barnes Composting Facility, Huron, Ohio

Bob Schanz, with Barnes Composting, discusses their new surface water control system and composting practices.

Closing the Loop: A panel discussion

Tailoring Soil Dredge Blends for Restoration of Urban Soils, Dr. Nick Basta, Ohio State University

Ohio Sediment Beneficial Reuse, Jason Ziss, Kurtz Bros.

Overview of Ohio EPA's Beneficial Use Program, Maera Flynn, Ohio EPA

Port of Cleveland Sediment Recycling Facility, Cleveland, Ohio

With the Cleveland skyline in the background, Jason Ziss, with Kurtz Bros. Inc., discusses their system for collecting sand from materials dredged from the Cuyahoga River channel.

The Ohio Composting and Manure Management Program (OCAMM) seeks to research, develop and communicate sustainable strategies for managing animal manure and nutrient inputs on Ohio farms. The program is supported by The Ohio State University's Ohio Agricultural and Research Development Center. ocamm.osu.edu

The Organics Recycling Association of Ohio is a non-profit organization that promotes the growth of the organics recycling industry in Ohio encouraging further study, research, advancement, development of composting and organic recycling through professionalism, education, training, information exchange and networking of and networking of the industry and its regulating agencies. www.ohiocompost.org

